A Fine Business in Raw Furs

But few of our citizens have any idea of the amount of business transacted by our fellow townsman, H. P. Ohmer, in the raw fur line. On Sunday last an Expositor representative was invited over to take a look around. We went and met with a big surprise at the number of pelts he had on hand. Henry started buying furs while living on his farm north and west of Yale, and since moving to the city has enjoyed a steadily increasing business, until his dealings in this line run into the thousands each year, and his territory covers nearly the entire state of Michigan.

Besides buying and shipping Mr. Ohmer takes orders for finished furs and can save you some money on same. On Monday he made a shipment of part of the stock on hand, which was as follows:—2400 rats, 240 skunk, 180 mink, 128 coon, 67 weasel and 4 bear skins. We don't know much about the fur business but it looks to us as though Henry had run up against a "skin" game which will be a winner.

People in this community having furs to sell should give him a chance on same. He will pay you as much and in many instances more than you can get from outside dealers, and in so doing you will also help in the upbuilding of a home institution.

Besides the raw fur business Mr. Ohmer is in the market for live and dressed poultry, and he informed us that since starting to buy same has paid to the farmers of this vicinity nearly $4,000.

It is with great pleasure that we give this young industry a brief write-up, and we hope the business will grow until Mr. Ohmer becomes one of the biggest buyers of raw furs in the state of Michigan.
